Information of Namsan in Gyeongju National Park.

- National Park.
  National Park is the place that the government supervises directly to preserve beautiful nature and precious cultural heritage Gyeongju National Park, which is only a Historical National Park, was designated as the second national park in the whole of Korea following Mt. Jiri in 1968.

- Gyeongju Namsan
  Mt. Namsan is made up of forty or so valleys and mountain ranges that start form the two peak, Geumobong (468m) and Gowibong (493m). It is oval-shaped and stretches far out to East-West 4km and South-North 10km. Also it looks as if a gold turtle is sitting down in the middle of the field in Gyeongju. There are uncountable national treasures, treasures and cultural assets designated by city and province in Namsan. Besides, Namsan is often called "a museum without walls" because of the perfect balance with nature. So, the entire Namsan was designated as part of the World's Cultural Heritage in 2000 because Namsan was recognised as an extraordinary historical site
